Are you aged 16–18 and looking to gain experience working with children or supporting community activities?

DACIC is offering a paid opportunity to help deliver our Youth Board Games Sessions for children aged 10–14.

Our weekly Dungeons & Dragons sessions encourage creativity, teamwork, problem-solving and confidence in a safe, inclusive and supportive environment.

Key Responsibilities:

- Attend and support the 2-hour session each week
- Help set up the room and prepare equipment before each session
- Prepare and serve light refreshments for participants
- Help create a welcoming, inclusive and positive atmosphere
- Be a positive and friendly role model for younger attendees
- Promote safe and respectful behaviour during sessions

Person Specification:

- Aged 16–18 and living in or near Dornoch
- Interested in board games, tabletop games or working with children and young people
- Friendly, reliable, and willing to learn
- No previous experience is required – just enthusiasm and a supportive attitude

Pay:

£10 per hour (2 hours per session = £20 per week)

Training, support and references will be provided.
